

PAMELA LAMOREAUX

International Finance Corporation (World Bank Group) Washington, DC USA

Ms. Lamoreaux is the Manager of the Housing Finance Group within the Global Financial Markets at IFC. This group helps to formulate the strategies in regards to investments related to housing finance and the capital markets for the Corporation, which include investments related to primary and secondary mortgage markets, securitization and other capital market development. The IFC committed almost US$ 300 million for housing related projects in FY03/04.

Prior to that Ms. Lamoreaux spent one-year as part of the Countrywide International Consulting Services team, as a resident advisor to KoMoCo, a secondary market corporation in Korea on setting up their operations.

Ms. Lamoreaux spent 4-years to help create the Hong Kong Mortgage Corporation (HKMC). In September 1998 she was appointed the Chief Operating Officer where she was responsible for supervising the day-to-day running of the HKMC's operation and assisting in the development of the business strategy for the corporation. The HKMC initiated a successful private mortgage insurance scheme, the first pass-through securitization, and new mortgage products for the market.

Prior to joining the HKMC, Ms. Lamoreaux was the Director of International Housing Finance Services for Fannie Mae where she was responsible for directing and managing the international consulting activities. Fannie Mae, the largest mortgage corporation in the world, has provided technical assistance to many countries in support of their efforts to develop their housing finance systems. Ms. Lamoreaux spent 12 years at Fannie Mae in a number of positions.